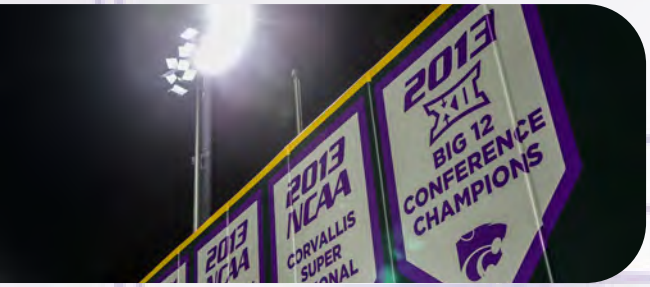
WELCOME TO K-STATE

TOINTON FAMILY STADIUM



Opened in 2001 as the home of K-State Baseball, a renovated and expanded Tointon Family Stadium debuted in 2020 after completion of a $15 million project finalizing a two-year refurbishment of the facility that resulted in new bullpens, a spacious clubhouse and office building, chairback seating throughout the grandstand and a towering videoboard in right field.

The stadium's latest improvement came prior to the 2023 season, when a new artificial turf surface was installed utilizing the FieldTurf DoublePlay system.

The stadium is named in honor of Bob and Betty Tointon, the principle benefactors of the original $3.1 million structure, who once again demonstrated their generosity and continued support of Kansas State University and Wildcat Baseball as the lead donors in the project that all but gutted the original facility and constructed in its place a beautiful and functional new home for K-State Baseball.

The Tointon Family Stadium upgrades were started prior to the 2019 season with the installation of a padded outfield wall, construction of large Major League-style bullpens beyond the left- and right-field fences, refurbished dugouts with new benches and flooring, and the installation of LED stadium lighting.

Immediately following the 2019 campaign, construction on the stadium's seating bowl, press box, suites and former clubhouse and office areas commenced. Over the next eight months, in conjunction with the building of Buser Family Park – K-State's soccer stadium next door – Tointon Family Stadium's exterior took on a fresh look utilizing the existing and distinctive "K-State limestone" façade with the addition of metal roofing and accent glass panels matching the soccer facility. The stadium concourse was expanded and covered for the comfort of the fans and a new ticket office, which serves both baseball and soccer, built between the stadiums. Inside Tointon Stadium, chairback seating was installed in all sections of the seating bowl, replacing the original chairs and aluminum bleachers.

Fans are entertained during games by the 44-foot high by 36-foot wide Edgerley Family Videoboard, while families enjoy the Sidlinger Family Playground – enclosed by protective netting – on the third-base side and a permanent K-State Super Store location on the concourse to purchase all their Wildcat gear. In addition, a new backstop netting system was erected and extended beyond the left- and right-field standing room areas for greater fan safety.

Rising above the third-base grandstand is the crown jewel of the project – a two-story clubhouse and office complex that more than triples the space of the original stadium for areas utilized by the student-athletes and coaches. Housed on the ground level that connects to the third-base dugout are the team spaces – a massive locker room featuring distinctive white lockers and unique ceiling lighting shaped as stitches on a baseball, a meeting room and video theater with lounge seating for 40, a players' lounge with three big-screen televisions and study tables, a dedicated fuel station for nutritional needs, a sports medicine and rehabilitation zone, and expanded laundry and equipment storage areas. Overlooking the field above the third-base grandstand on the second level are the coaches offices, conference room and coaches locker room.

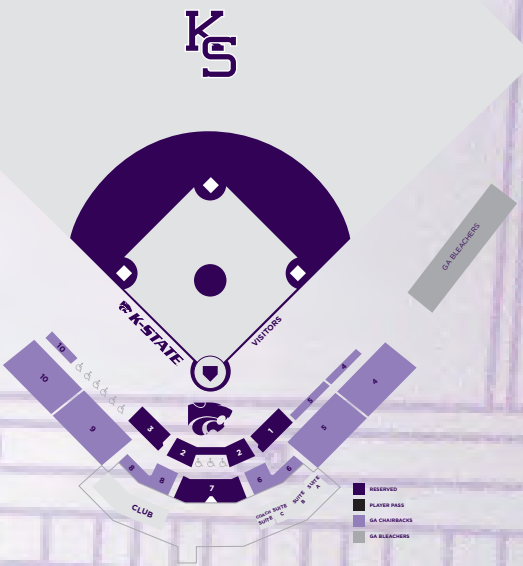
To top off the project, the press and suite level was gutted and remodeled with all new finishes and furniture while the popular Giller Family Club was enlarged and the original balcony walkway enclosed to provide greater comfort for donors and fans.

Additionally, brand new turf and infield were installed in the team's Brandeberry Indoor Facility. The facility, which is located past the right-field fence, houses the team's strength and conditioning equipment including squat racks, benches, dumbells, kettlebells and other equipment.

Continuing K-State Athletics' commitment to fiscal responsibility, the department once again depended on individual donors throughout Wildcat Nation to reach the $15 million to complete construction. Fifty-nine K-State families from 16 states stepped up to raise over $13 million four months ahead of schedule.

The project, led by BG Consultants, was funded without incurring any long-term debt and without any state tax or university funds. Any outstanding construction costs above the fundraising goal will be funded through department revenues and resources.



The Big 12 enters its 30th year as one of the nation's premier conferences in college athletics under the leadership of Commissioner Brett Yormark. Since joining the Conference in August 2022, Yormark has elevated the Big 12 to new heights, emphasizing marketing, brand building and instilling an innovative strategy that has resonated across the college athletics landscape. The Big 12 began play in 1996 and is the home of 92 team NCAA national championships, and 775 individual national champions (as of Nov. 25, 2025). The Big 12 Conference office is located in Irving, Texas.

The Big 12 is comprised of 14 baseball institutions after welcoming Arizona, Arizona State and Utah on July 1, 2024. BYU, Cincinnati, UCF and Houston were the first new additions since the conference realignments when they joined the league on July 1, 2023. Baylor, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, and Texas Tech are legacy members. while TCU and West Virginia joined in 2013.

The Big 12 Conference has selected Surprise Stadium, the spring training home of the Texas Rangers and Kansas City Royals, as the new host site for the Big 12 Baseball Championship beginning in 2026. Located in Surprise, Arizona, Surprise Stadium was recently ranked #1 in USA Today's Best Spring Training Facility rankings.

Big 12 baseball has proven to be one of the most competitive conferences in the country with a total of 141 NCAA Regional Appearances, 30 College World Series appearances in the league's 29 seasons. The Big 12 tied the Conference's record with eight league baseball programs selected to the 2025 NCAA Division I Baseball Championship, with Arizona advancing to the College World Series. It was the fourth consecutive season and the 22nd time in 28 seasons that the league earned five or more bids. The Big 12 has sent at least one team to 10 of the last 11 Men's College World Series.

K-State head baseball coach Pete Hughes installed 19 Ways when he came to Manhattan as a community service initiative designed to have a positive impact on the community on 19 different occasions. Hughes and his teams have connected and supported the community through signature events such as Shave for the Brave and the ALS Awareness Halloween Game.

Shave for the Brave culminated the program's fundraising campaign for College Baseball vs. Cancer to benefit the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation. The Wildcats were four-time defending national fundraising champions, raising over $130,000 in that span. In 2020, K-State's players and coaches raised $38,019 – nearly $10,000 more than any other college baseball program.

"I love it because it tells me I have the right guys in my clubhouse," Hughes said. "Kids that care about the right things. Kids that aren't entitled and feel truly privileged to have their health and get to play baseball at a great university. To be proactive and raise that amount of money in back-to-back-to-back years, speaks volumes."

The 19 Ways program is named in honor of his late mother, Alice, whose favorite number was 19. For K-State student-athletes and staff, this is a platform to give back to the Manhattan community that gives such tremendous support throughout the course of the year.

Hughes developed the program while serving as head coach at Virginia Tech in 2009 and continued the initiative at Oklahoma. Now, several teams across the country have adopted 19 Ways, including Notre Dame, Northern Illinois, Northeastern and Virginia Tech, among others.

CAREER
Pete Hughes, who begins his eighth season at the helm of the Wildcats baseball program in 2026, was named the 21st head baseball coach in K-State history on June 8, 2018.

With 852 career victories, the most by any current Big 12 head coach and 12th amongst active NCAA Division I Power 4 head coaches, Hughes has a proven track record of setting new standards of excellence. Hughes has overseen 91 former student-athletes selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including 27 taken in the first 10 rounds after two players were selected in the 2025 MLB Draft. In total, Hughes has recruited 145 players who were drafted and/or played professionally, including eight first-rounders.

K-State is one of only two programs in the nation – and only school from the Big 12 – with four or more middle infielders selected in the Top 10 Rounds over the last three years.

He has developed and/or recruited 23 Major Leaguers during his collegiate coaching career, most recently right-hander Connor McCullough, who made his MLB debut with the Chicago White Sox in 2025.

With 25 winning seasons in his 28 years as a head coach, including all seven seasons in Manhattan, he has compiled a career record of 852-660-3 (.563). He began his head coaching career at Trinity University (1997-98) while also serving as the skipper at Boston College (1999-2006), Virginia Tech (2007-13) and Oklahoma (2014-17).

Twice named both the New England Coach of the Year and BIG EAST Coach of the Year, as well as the 2000 American Baseball Coaches Association Northeast Region Coach of the Year, Hughes owns a well-deserved reputation as a relentless worker, tireless recruiter, and charismatic leader.

AT K-STATE (2019-PRES.)
In seven seasons as the head coach of the Wildcats, Hughes has put together a 200-168 (.543) overall record, that includes a .727 winning percentage at home and six consecutive runs in the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championships. K-State has compiled 16 MLB Draft picks, four All-Americans, 37 All-Big 12 honors, five Big 12 All-Freshman Team selections in the Hughes era.

Under Hughes, K-State baseball has garnered six consecutive Wildcat Cup awards which honors teams for their excellence in the five core areas of student-athlete well-being: academics, athletics, career, personal and service. The 2024 team was named K-State's Men's Team of the Year, while three players received individual recognition by their peers – Kaelen Culpepper (Male Athlete of the Year), Nick English (Male Newcomer of the Year), and Jaden Parsons (Men's Unsung Hero of the Year).

Last season, Hughes guided K-State to its seventh consecutive winning season, posting a 32-26 overall record and a 17-13 mark in Big 12 play. The Wildcats earned their sixth NCAA Tournament appearance and second straight berth, marking the program's first back-to-back bids since 2010–11. The 17 conference wins set a new school record, surpassing the previous mark established by the 2013 team.

Over the past five seasons, K-State has recorded five of the top six single-season home run totals in program history, highlighted by a school-record 97 in 2025. Additional totals include 89 in 2021 (second), 84 in 2022 (third), 77 in 2023 (fourth) and 69 in 2024 (sixth).

On May 31, Keegan O'Connor broke the program's single-season home run record with a three-run blast during the NCAA Austin Regional. Entering the regional tied at 16 homers with Scott Poepard, Heath Schesser and Dylan Phillips, O'Connor launched his 17th homer at 104 mph off the bat to eclipse the mark set in 1997.

Freshman AJ Evasco capped a historic rookie campaign by earning Second Team Freshman All-American honors from the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, becoming one of four Big 12 freshmen to receive the distinction. During the NCAA Austin Regional, the Lincoln, Nebraska native set multiple freshman program records, surpassing the previous freshman home run mark of 10 and breaking the freshman RBI record previously shared by Brett Reid (1999) and Nick Martini (2009).

Junior Maximus Martin earned First Team All-Central Region honors, becoming the fifth player of the Hughes era to receive All-Region recognition and one of seven Big 12 selections on the First Team from a 37-school region. A Second Team All-Big 12 honoree, Martin collected Big 12 Player and Newcomer of the Week honors and led the team with 18 multi-hit games, while ranking second with 15 multi-RBI performances. On March 10, he became the first Wildcat to earn Golden Spikes Player of the Week recognition after posting a 2.714 OPS with five home runs and 12 RBI in a series sweep of William & Mary.

K-State had two players selected on the final day of the 2025 MLB Draft, as Martin was chosen in the 10th round by the Boston Red Sox with the 298th overall pick, followed by left-hander Jacob Frost, who was selected 315th overall by the Los Angeles Dodgers. Martin became just the second Wildcat drafted by Boston, while Frost marked the ninth player in program history selected by Los Angeles.

Right-hander James Guyette earned an invitation to the 2025 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team Training Camp, becoming the third player under Hughes — and fourth overall in program history — to receive the honor. Guyette led the team with 24 relief appearances, posting a 4-3 record, a 4.70 ERA and a team-best four saves while holding opponents to a .226 batting average and striking out 51 over 51 2/3 innings.

Martin and O'Connor each earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors, while Evasco was selected to the All-Freshman Team. Additionally, Seth Dardar, Jacob Frost and James Guyette received honorable mention recognition in 2025.

Academically, the Wildcats earned the program's second-ever ABCA Team Academic Excellence Award — and first since the 2016–17 academic year — finishing with a team GPA of 3.24.

In 2024, Hughes directed K-State to its sixth straight winning season with a 35-26 overall mark and the program's first berth to the NCAA Tournament since 2013. Hughes led the Wildcats to the 2024 NCAA Charlottesville Super Regional after their sweep of the Fayetteville Regional, which included a 7-6 triumph over top-seeded and nationally-ranked fifth Arkansas. The 2024 squad also appeared in the all four final NCAA Division I baseball rankings: D1Baseball (14th), National College Baseball Writers' Association (NCBWA) (16th), USA Today (21st), and Baseball America (22nd).

The K-State pitching staff, paced fifth-round draft selection Jackson Wentworth, ended the season 19th in the nation with a record-breaking 590 total strikeouts. With 115 strikeouts on the year, the righty finished 18th in the nation in total punchouts followed by left-hander Owen Boerema, who finished seven spots behind nationally with 110. Jacob Frost and Wentworth combined for the K-State's first no-hitter since 1991, blanking Cincinnati 4-0 in the 2024 Big 12 opener.

Offensively, the Wildcats finished in the Top 25 nationally in total stolen bases (137), stolen bases per game (2.25), triples (18), and walks (321). K-State's 137 stolen bases finished ninth in the nation, while it was second in the single-season school records.

The 2024 Wildcats featured All-American shortstop Kaelen Culpepper, who went on to become the second first-rounder in school history after he was selected 21st overall by the Minnesota Twins in the 2024 MLB Draft. A three-time All-Big 12 selection, Culpepper capped his collegiate career leading K-State in hits (80), batting average (.328), slugging percentage (.574), home runs (11), and triples (6).

In the regional opener, Culpepper became just the fourth player in K-State history to hit for the cycle, joining Ross Kivett (2014), Heath Schesser (1997), and Craig Wilson (1992). The junior from Memphis, Tenn., tripled in the second, singled in the sixth, doubled in the seventh, and homered in his fifth at-bat, to complete the cycle.

A total of five K-State players were chosen in the 2024 MLB Draft, including four taken in the first 10 rounds. In addition to Culpepper, the Cats draft picks included right-hander Tyson Neighbors (fourth-round, No. 118 overall), right-hander Jackson Wentworth (fifth-round), second baseman Brady Day (10th-round), and outfielder Brendan Jones (12th-round).

The emergence of Brady Day and Brendan Jones also highlighted the 2024 season, as they were just two of three players to play and start in all 61 games. Day, who produced a team-best and career-high 18-game hitting streak, was named to the 2024 Golden Spikes Midseason Watch List. Jones was named a 2024 ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove Finalist, as the junior turned in a .994 fielding percentage with 156 putouts and just one error on the year. The duo finished first and eighth in the Big 12 in total walks with Jones' conference-leading 55 walks tied the single-season program record.

The Wildcats' nine All-Big 12 selections in 2024 matched the program record that was set in 2013, while K-State was one of five schools from the Big 12 to have nine or more players receive All-Big 12 honors.

In 2023, K-State turned in a 35-24 mark, its highest win total since posting 45 in 2013, including a program record 14 road victories. Hughes guided the Wildcats to their first Big 12 series sweep since 2013 with the program's first home sweep over Oklahoma since 1990 along with the highest scoring game in series history against KU with K-State winning 21-18.

The 2023 team was one of just three teams in the country that walked over 300 times, hit over 75 home runs, and stole over 100 bases. Offensively, his team batted .270 as a team and averaged just under seven runs per game and hit 77 home runs. In the past three seasons, the Cats have registered the top three home run marks in school history – 89 (2021), 84 (2022), and 77 (2023). Three players had double figure home runs led by Roberto Pena with 15 to tie second in the single-season records. The Cats discipline at the plate generated 340 walks which marked the first 300-plus season since 1997.

At the 2023 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship, Hughes led the Cats to their first conference tournament shutout since 1976 in a 7-0 defeat over No. 20 Texas, before taking down school rival KU to advance to the semifinals. Seven players received All-Big 12 recognition with Tyson Neighbors, Owen Boerema, Nick Goodwin, Kaelen Culpepper, Brady Day, Brendan Jones, and Raphael Pelletier.

Neighbors became just the second Wildcat is school history to earn consensus All-American honors and was a First Team All-Big 12 selection and led the league with 11 saves. He set school season class records in saves along with a record setting 1.85 ERA (10 ER, 48.2 IP) as a sophomore pitcher. He also broke the program's TrackMan-era pitch velocity record at 99-mph in the series opening win against No. 14 Texas Tech (April 28).

Neighbors was named NCBWA Stopper of the Year Finalist as he held opponents to a .135 batting average In 25 outings with 86 strikeouts. The Royse City, Texas product was one of just two relievers from the Big 12 to rank in the Top 10 in total strikeouts in league standings.

In 40 games, Culpepper turned in a career-best slash line of .325/.423/.576 with 10 home runs and 41 RBI. He was just one of three Wildcats to reach double digit homers while his slugging percentage led the Cats' offense and was second in batting average.

Culpepper and Neighbors became just the second and third players in school history to compete for Team USA as they each received an invitation to the Collegiate National Team Training Camp. The duo earned positions on Team USA to compete against Chinese Tei Pei and Japan. A two-time All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection, Culpepper was the top slugger for Team USA that summer as he led the Red, White, and Blue with a .471 batting average and slugging percentage of .853. In four appearances, Neighbors allowed just three hits with four strikeouts during his 3 2/3 innings in relief for Team USA. He made two appearances during the national training camp where he struck out five batters during two hitless innings.

Goodwin was named a Brooks Wallace Award Semifinalist by the College Baseball Foundation, which recognizes the nation's top shortstop. The Overland Park native, who was one of three players from the Big 12 to make list, was the third Wildcat to be named a semifinalist joining Drew Biery in 2009 and Austin Fisher in 2013. Goodwin started in all 173 games at shortstop since taking the field in 2021, totaling 33 career home runs, producing double figure blasts during each season.

Two players were selected to the MLB's First-Year Player Draft with Goodwin (Toronto Blue Jays -7th round (No. 214 overall)) and Day (Atlanta Braves – 12th (No. 369 overall)). Goodwin became the fifth Wildcat to be picked in the top 10 rounds over the last five seasons. The duo increases Hughes' career draft total to 84 over his 25-year career, including 10 while at K-State.

In 2022, Hughes guided the Wildcats to their second consecutive appearance in the league postseason tournament and third in the last four years. The Cats claimed four victories over Top 10 teams including a pair of series wins over No. 7 Texas.

The Wildcats bullpen registered the second-best performance in school history with 540 strikeouts, averaging 9.6 strikeouts-per-nine innings. Hughes has overseen three of the top five strikeout seasons in program history after a program record 541 in 2021 and 448 in 2019.

On April 2, 2022, Dylan Phillips launched two home runs against Oklahoma State to become K-State's all-time home run leader, breaking the previous mark that stood since 1997. Phillips hit 13 home runs in his senior campaign to mark his third double-digit home run season, totaling 44 in his career.

Three players were selected to the MLB's First-Year Player Draft with Phillips (Los Angeles Angels), Blake Adams (Colorado Rockies) and Dominic Johnson (Detroit Tigers). Phillips became the fourth Wildcat to be picked in the top 10 rounds over the last four seasons.

The Cats totaled six wins over top-10 squads during the 2021 campaign, which are the most on record in K-State history. Hughes has totaled 13 victories over top-25 teams while at K-State.

His 2021 team saw records fall both at the plate and on the mound. The Wildcat offense launched a program-record 89 home runs, smashing the previous mark of 75 set in 1997. Dylan Phillips matched the single-season home run record with 16 while Zach Kokoska tallied 15 to lead four Wildcats with double-digit homers. The 89 home runs ranked 11th in the country.

Freshman infielder Nick Goodwin connected for 10 home runs during his freshman all-America season, tying Phillips' freshman record set in 2019.

The pitching staff racked up 541 strikeouts, breaking the previous record by nearly 100 (453) while the 9.9 strikeout-per-nine innings smashed the previous mark of 8.6 set in 1969.

Friday night starter Jordan Wicks produced a single-season record 118 punchouts in 2021 on his way to becoming K-State's all-time strikeout leader, finishing his career with 230 strikeouts in less than two and a half seasons. Wicks became the first Wildcat to ever be selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, as he was taken by the Chicago Cubs with the 21st overall pick. Wicks was among four Cats who heard their named called during the 2021 MLB Draft, all within the first 15 rounds. Right-handed pitcher Carson Seymour was taken by the New York Mets in the sixth round, outfielder Zach Kokoska was selected in the 10th round by the Colorado Rockies and Eric Torres was picked by the Los Angeles Angels in the 14th round.

Hughes' second season came to a screeching to a halt in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic after just 17 games. K-State had won seven of its last nine games, including taking three of four during a road series at perennial power Stanford.

Over 17 games, the Wildcat pitching staff ranked sixth in the nation in ERA (2.07), fifth in WHIP (1.01) and fourth in hits per nine innings (5.6). The Cats were one of just two teams in the country to allow only one home run during the season.

Wicks, the 2019 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and 2021 Preseason Big 12 Co-Pitcher of the Year, started the 2020 season without allowing an earned run in his first 24 2/3 innings. The lefty finished the season with a 0.35 ERA, best among Big 12 starters and 10th among all pitchers in the nation.

Offensively, K-State hit 13 home runs in 17 games, led by five from Phillips. Phillips, along with Terrence Spurlin, led the club with 18 RBI. Over the final nine games, K-State averaged 8.7 runs per game while launching nine home runs with a team average of .327.

In his first season at the helm of the Wildcats, Hughes led K-State to a berth in the 2019 Big 12 Championship - its first conference postseason bid since 2016. K-State finished with a 25-33 record (8-16 Big 12), including series victories over then-No. 14 Texas and No. 19 TCU.

Hughes' initial campaign held many highlights, including seven victories over top-25 opponents, K-State's highest total since 2011 and more than the previous three seasons combined. The Cats' consecutive series wins over the Longhorns and Horned Frogs marked the first time in program history K-State defeated ranked teams in consecutive series.

K-State's offense launched 54 home runs in 2019, its highest total since the 2009 season. Chris Ceballos and Phillips each hit 10 homers, as Phillips broke a K-State freshman record that stood since 1994. The Wildcat offense produced a stretch of 14 consecutive games with at least one home run - the program's longest in the Big 12 era and the longest of any Division I program during the 2019 season.

On the mound, Wicks took home Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors and went on to be named a 2019 Freshman All-America by D1Baseball.com and Collegiate Baseball. He became just the second Wildcat to earn conference freshman-of-the-year accolades and first since 2013 (Jake Matthys). Wicks broke program freshman records with 84 2/3 innings pitched and 86 strikeouts, both of which had stood since 1973.

The K-State pitching staff racked up 448 strikeouts, the third-highest single-season total in program history and just four shy of the all-time record. The Cats tossed consecutive road shutouts (at Texas on April 14, at Nebraska on April 16) - the first consecutive shutouts since 2008 and back-to-back road shutouts since the 1967 season.

Wicks was one of five Wildcats to earn All-Big 12 accolades at the end of the 2019 season, joined by Griffin Hassall (Freshman), Zach Kokoska (Honorable Mention), Caleb Littlejim (Honorable Mention) Terrence Spurlin (Honorable Mention) and Cameron Thompson (Honorable Mention). K-State also tallied seven Academic All-Big 12 selections in Hughes' first season.

Hughes has made a name for himself within the community throughout his career, starting with his 19 Ways Foundation which he has taken with him at every coaching stop. During each of his four fall seasons at K-State, the Wildcats have led the country in money raised for the annual College Baseball Vs. Cancer campaign, the signature fundraising campaign of the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation.

The Wildcats raised over $38,000 during both the 2020 and 2021 fall seasons, claiming their fourth consecutive national fundraising title. K-State players and staff have combined to raise over $130,000 to help combat childhood cancer in Hughes' time in Manhattan. While at Oklahoma, his teams raised over $80,000 to fight childhood cancer through the Vs. Cancer Foundation and the OU Children's hospital.

Following the 2018-19 academic year, Hughes' team earned the Wildcat Cup Trophy at the Powercat Choice Awards, voted on by the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) for excellence in the five core area of student-athlete well-being: academics, athletics, career, personal and service.

AT GEORGIA (2018)

Hughes came to Manhattan after spending the 2018 season at the volunteer assistant coach at Georgia, where he helped the Bulldogs earn a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. Primarily working with the team's infielders, Hughes elevated UGA's defense from the bottom of the SEC in 2017 to 10th-best in the nation in his one season in Athens.

AT OKLAHOMA (2014-17)

In 2017, the Sooners registered a 35-24 mark and advanced to the NCAA Tournament as a No. 2 seed in the Louisville Regional. Hughes collected a 128-1074-1 (.544) record in four seasons at the helm of the Sooners.

In his final season as the OU skipper, Hughes tutored 10 players that were honored with Big 12 annual awards – the most in program history – including Brylie Ware who was named the Big 12 Co-Newcomer of the Year and earned a spot on the All-Big 12 First Team along with outfielder Steele Walker.

AT VIRGINIA TECH (2007-13)

Inheriting a Virginia Tech club in 2007 that had not reached the NCAA Tournament since 2000, Hughes went on to lead the Hokies to five straight 30-win seasons, including a pair of 40-win seasons that culminated with berths in the NCAA Tournament in 2010 and 2013, the latter marking the school's first-ever selection as a regional host site. Hughes compiled a 222-174 (.561) record in seven seasons at Virginia Tech.

AT BOSTON COLLEGE (1999-2006)

Hughes produced an even more remarkable turnaround at Boston College, as he took over a program that had averaged just 13 wins a year over the previous 35 seasons. The Golden Eagles finished 17-23-1 the year prior to his arrival in 1998 and, two seasons later, the team registered an 18-game improvement as it finished 35-20 and qualified for the program's second-ever appearance in the BIG EAST Tournament. In 2005, he guided BC to a school-record 37 victories.

Averaging 31 wins a season while at Boston College, Hughes owned a career mark of 250-181-2 (.580) as the Eagles' skipper. He coached 37 all-conference selections while at Boston College, including Jared McGuire who was named 2005 BIG EAST Player of the Year.

PLAYING CAREER

Hughes is a 1990 graduate of Davidson College where he played third base on the baseball team and quarterback for the Wildcats' football team. He was captain of the baseball team as a senior and graduated that year with a Bachelor of Arts in sociology/anthropology.

Hughes began his coaching career at Hamilton College in New York in 1990-91, serving as an assistant in football and was the top assistant and recruiting coordinator for baseball. He continued in that dual role at Northeastern University in Boston from the fall of 1991 until the spring of 1996 when he landed the head baseball coaching position at Trinity.

PERSONAL

A native of Brockton, Massachusetts, Hughes and his wife Debby have five children: Thomas, Hal, Dominic, Grace and P.J. Thomas finished his collegiate career at K-State in 2019 after also playing at Oklahoma and is currently the team's assistant coach. Dom is an outfielder at K-State and Hal, an infielder, finished his career at Rice in 2022, while P.J. is committed to play baseball at Richmond.

Austin Wates, who has established himself as one of the best offensive minds in college baseball, and a tireless recruiter, was elevated to the Associate Head Coach on August 29, 2023.

Wates was hired by head coach Pete Hughes as assistant baseball coach on June 22, 2018. In his role, Wates' primary focus is on the Wildcat hitters, outfielders, and baserunners in addition to recruiting responsibilities.

AT K-STATE (2019-PRESENT)

Over the past seven seasons under Wates' guidance, K-State's offense has recorded five of the top six seasons in terms of total home runs in program history, highlighted by a record-breaking 97 in 2025. The Cats' 97 home runs in 2025 ranked 23rd in the nation and third in the Big 12. Additional totals include 89 in 2021 (second), 84 in 2022 (third), 77 in 2023 (fourth) and 69 in 2024 (sixth). The 89 bombs in 2021 ranked 11th in the nation and shattered the previous record of 75 set in 1997.

Nine position players have been taken in the MLB Draft since Wates joined the coaching staff, including All-American Kaelen Culpepper, who went on to become the second first-rounder in school history. A three-time All-Big 12 honoree, Culpepper was selected 21st overall by the Minnesota Twins in the 2024 MLB Draft.

Last season, the Wildcats finished within the Big 12's top five in several offensive categories, ranking third in home runs (97) and slugging percentage (.492), and fifth in total runs (424) and walks (272). K-State, which achieved a school-record 17 conference wins, finished just outside of the top five in scoring (7.3 runs per game). The 2025 season was highlighted by strong offensive performances from graduate Keegan O'Connor, junior Maximus Martin and freshman AJ Evasco.

On May 31, 2025, Keegan O'Connor broke the program's single-season home run record with a three-run blast during the NCAA Austin Regional. Entering the regional tied at 16 homers with Scott Poepard, Heath Schesser and Dylan Phillips, O'Connor launched his 17th homer at 104 mph off the bat to eclipse the mark set in 1997.

Freshman AJ Evasco capped a historic rookie campaign by earning Second Team Freshman All-American honors from the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, becoming one of four Big 12 freshmen to receive the distinction. During the NCAA Austin Regional, the Lincoln, Nebraska native set multiple freshman program records, surpassing the previous freshman home run mark of 10 and breaking the freshman RBI record previously shared by Brett Reid (1999) and Nick Martini (2009).

Junior Maximus Martin earned First Team All-Central Region honors, becoming the fifth player of the Hughes era to receive All-Region recognition and one of seven Big 12 selections on the First Team from a 37-school region. A Second Team All-Big 12 honoree, Martin collected Big 12 Player and Newcomer of the Week honors and led the team with 18 multi-hit games, while ranking second with 15 multi-RBI performances. On March 10, he became the first Wildcat to earn Golden Spikes Player of the Week recognition after posting a 2.714 OPS with five home runs and 12 RBI in a series sweep of William & Mary.

Martin was chosen in the 10th round by the Boston Red Sox with the 298th overall pick, becoming just the second Wildcat drafted by Boston, while Frost marked the ninth player in program history selected by Los Angeles.

In his first season as the Wildcats associate head coach, Wates orchestrated an offense that finished in the Top 25 nationally in total stolen bases (137), stolen bases per game (2.25), triples (18), and walks (321). K-State's 137 stolen bases finished ninth in the nation, while it was second in the single-season school records.

In his first season as the Wildcats associate head coach, Wates orchestrated an offense that finished in the Top 25 nationally in total stolen bases (137), stolen bases per game (2.25), triples (18), and walks (321). K-State's 137 stolen bases finished ninth in the nation, while it was second in the single-season school records.

Culpepper, the Wildcats top slugger from last season, capped his collegiate career leading K-State in hits (80), batting average (.328), slugging percentage (.574), home runs (11), and triples (6).In the regional opener, Culpepper became just the fourth player in K-State history to hit for the cycle, joining Ross Kivett (2014), Heath Schesser (1997), and Craig Wilson (1992). The junior from Memphis, Tenn., tripled in the second, singled in the sixth, doubled in the seventh, and homered in his fifth at-bat, to complete the cycle.

In addition to Culpepper, second baseman Brady Day and centerfielder Brendan Jones were selected in the 2024 MLB Draft. Day was chosen by the Philadelphia Phillies with the 312th overall pick, while Jones was selected in the 12th round (No. 361 overall) by the New York Yankees on the final day of the 2024 MLB Draft.

The emergence of Day and Jones also highlighted the 2024 season, as they were just two of three players to play and start in all 61 games. Day, who produced a team-best and career-high 18-game hitting streak, was named to the 2024 Golden Spikes Midseason Watch List. Jones was named a 2024 ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove Finalist, as the junior turned in a .994 fielding percentage with 156 putouts and just one error on the year. The duo finished first and eighth in the Big 12 in total walks with Jones' conference-leading 55 walks tied the single-season program record.

In his fifth season with the Cats, Wates helped K-State turn in in a 35-24 mark, its highest win total since posting 45 in 2013, including a program record 14 road victories. Wates' offense generated top 10 performances in five K-State offensive categories: home runs (77 – 3rd), stolen bases (114 – 5th), walks (340 – 3rd), sacrifice flies (34 – T-4th), and runs batted in (379 – 9th).The 2023 team was one of just three teams in the country that walked over 300 times, hit over 75 home runs, and stole over 100 bases. The Wildcats batted .270 as a team and averaged just under seven runs per game and hit 77 home runs.

The Wildcats 340 walks ranked 13th in the final Division I standings, including five straight weeks as the national leader from March 22 to April 24, while finishing 19th in stolen bases.

In the past three seasons, the Cats have registered the top three home run marks in school history – 89 (2021), 84 (2022), and 77 (2023). Three players had double figure home runs led by Roberto Pena, who tied second in the single-season records with 15, followed by Nick Goodwin (12) and Kaelen Culpepper (10). The Cats discipline at the plate generated 340 walks which marked the first 300-plus season since 1997.

In 2022, the Wildcats knocked out the second-most home runs in school history with 84 which ranked third in the league and 39th nationally. K-State hit 36 home runs in the final 25 games of the season while 14 different players went yard at least once on the year. Twenty-seven of K-States 84 homers were game-tying or go-ahead home runs, led by Nick Goodwin with six.

On April 2, 2022, Dylan Phillips launched two home runs against Oklahoma State to become K-State's all-time home run leader, breaking the previous mark that stood since 1997. Phillips hit 13 home runs in his senior campaign to mark his third double-digit home run season, totaling 44 in his career. Phillips was one-of-three players last season selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft and was picked in the eighth round of by the Los Angeles Angels.

In his fourth season with K-state, Phillips equaled the single-season record with 16 home runs while Zach Kokoska was one behind with 15, as four Wildcats reached double-digit homers. Freshman Nick Goodwin's 10 home runs tied Phillips for the freshman single-season mark.

The long ball was a major reason K-State was able to claim series victories over No. 3 Texas Tech and No. 5 TCU on their way to picking up six top-10 wins during the 2021 season. The Cats finished with a 34-23 record, their highest win total since the 2013 Big 12 championship season.

Kokoska was one of four Wildcats chosen in the 2021 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, as the outfielder was selected by the Colorado Rockies in the 10th round.

Over 17 games in a pandemic-shortened 2020 season, K-State hit 13 home runs, led by five from Phillips. Phillips, along with Terrence Spurlin, led the club with 18 RBI. Over the final nine games, K-State averaged 8.7 runs per game while launching nine home runs with a team average of .327.

K-State won seven of its final nine games in 2020, including taking three of four games at perennial power Stanford.

In Wates' initial campaign at K-State, the Wildcats earned their first bid to the Big 12 Baseball Championship since 2016 after an eight-place finish in the Big 12 standings (25-33, 8-16 Big 12).

Under the guidance of Wates, the K-State offense registered 54 home runs in 58 games in 2019 - its highest single-season output since 2009. Six Wildcats hit at least five home runs, led by Chris Ceballos and Phillips each with 10. Phillips' 10 homers set a K-State record for a freshman, breaking the previous mark of seven homers set by Brian Culp (1990) and Todd Fereday (1994).

Wates' first season also saw junior Will Brennan drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the eighth round (No. 250 overall) of the 2019 MLB Draft. Brennan was the nation's toughest hitter to strike out in 2019 at 18.6 at-bats per strikeout. Brennan led the Big 12 in the statistical category for three straight seasons and finished his career with a .332 batting average.

AS A SCOUT (2016-18)

Wates, who played under Hughes at Virginia Tech from 2007-10, spent the previous two seasons working for the Seattle Mariners as an area scout in South Texas. Wates has built strong relationships in the region that will have an instant impact on recruiting.

With the Mariners, Wates was responsible for identifying and evaluating prospective players at both the collegiate and high school levels in the South Texas region. In the 2018 MLB Draft, Seattle selected two players from his area, including right-handed pitcher Nolan Hoffman (5th round) from Texas A&M and Rice outfielder Cody Staab (30th round).

PLAYING CAREER

Wates was a third-round selection (No. 90 overall) by the Houston Astros in the 2010 First-Year Player Draft following his junior year. In three seasons for the Hokies, Wates had a career average of .367 while leading the team in steals all three seasons, totaling 49 career steals.
The 6-foot-1 utility player hit 15 home runs and drove in 129 runs in his time with VT and was a preseason all-America selection in 2010 by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball, helping the Hokies to an NCAA Regional berth in 2010 – their first since 2000.

In six seasons in the minor leagues, Wates had a career slash line of .288/.362/.391 to go with 19 homers and 199 RBI. He quickly climbed the minor-league ladder, as he spent his last three professional seasons at the Triple-A level, both in the Astros (Oklahoma City) and Miami Marlins (New Orleans) organizations. In 2014, he was named the Pacific Coast League's Best Baserunner after leading the league with 37 stolen bases. Wates was also named a Class-AA All-Star in 2012 while with Corpus Christi.

Additionally, Wates was the head coach for the 14U Austin Horns Baseball Club in Austin, Texas, from 2016-18.

PERSONAL

A native of Richmond, Virginia, Wates completed his Bachelor of Science in Sociology from Virginia Tech in December of 2017. Wates and his wife, Christine, have one daughter, Grace, and two sons, Carter and Walker.

Known for his relentless work ethic and charismatic leadership, Darrow has improved each pitching staff he has been a part of and saw records fall at each stop at Nicholls State, Oklahoma, New Orleans and Central Oklahoma while sending multiple arms to the next level.

AT K-STATE (2023-PRESENT)

Since becoming the pitching coach, K-State has recorded three of the top five seasons in program history for total strikeouts, highlighted by a program-record 590 in 2024. Additional standout totals include 507 strikeouts in both 2023 and 2025, tying for fourth all-time. The Wildcats' pitching staff has also produced three of the top seasons in strikeouts per nine innings, posting a 9.7 mark in 2024 (second), 9.2 in 2025 (fourth), and 9.0 in 2023 (fifth).

Since Darrow joined the coaching staff, three pitchers have been selected in the MLB Draft: Tyson Neighbors (fourth round), Jackson Wentworth (fifth round) and Jacob Frost (10th round). Neighbors and Wentworth were both selected in 2024 by the San Diego Padres and Toronto Blue Jays, respectively, while Frost was taken by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2025.

Last season, K-State's pitching staff finished seventh in the Big 12 in total strikeouts (507) and strikeouts per nine innings (9.2), ranking 49th nationally. Two players finished among the Big 12's top 10 in strikeouts per nine innings, with left-hander Jacob Frost at 10.18 (fifth) and right-hander Michael Quevedo at 9.90 (eighth).

Lincoln Sheffield, who tossed a complete game to secure the Wildcats' series sweep over Utah on May 16, finished fifth in the Big 12 in both strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.68) and walks allowed per nine innings (2.30). With his 6 2/3 scoreless innings against Houston Christian on May 31, Sheffield set the record for most shutout innings by a starter in K-State's NCAA postseason history, helping the Wildcats advance to the NCAA Austin Regional semifinal.

Guyette also received an invitation to the 2025 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team Training Camp, becoming the fourth overall in program history to earn the distinction and second pitcher under Darrow during his time at K-State. Guyette led the team with 24 relief appearances and four saves.

Frost and Guyette each earned All-Big 12 honorable mention honors.

In 2024, Darrow spearheaded a pitching staff that struck out a program record 590 batters, finishing 19th overall in the nation. The pitching staff logged a 2.43 strikeout-to-walk ratio, which was third-best in the Big 12 and 27th nationally while the Cats' 9.7 strikeouts per nine innings was fourth in the league and 33rd overall.

Under his leadership, competitive research for the college reached $100 million annually, and the college raised $482 million during the NC State Capital Campaign.

Linton has held several key leadership roles, including membership on the Food and Drug Administration's Science Advisory Board and serving as chair for the Binational (Israel/U.S.) Agricultural Research and Development Fund, a position he was appointed to by the U.S. secretary of agriculture in 2018. The last three years could go down as one of the most successful periods in K-State Athletics history as Gene Taylor's program has taken the college athletics world by storm. Team championships, individual titles, postseason runs, record crowds, continued academic success and new facility enhancements have all been the cornerstone of recent Wildcat success.

This past year, Chris Klieman's football team won nine games and were Rate Bowl champions, the women's basketball team garnered another Top 10 ranking and trip to the Sweet 16 under Jeff Mittie, while Pete Hughes and the baseball squad advanced to its second straight NCAA Regional. On the golf course, Stew Burke's women's squad advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history and were led by All-American Carla Bernat, who also won the prestigious Augusta National Women's Amateur title, and Big 12 individual champion Sophie Bert. Two new coaches began leading their respective programs in 2024-25 as Travis Geopfert took over the track and field/cross country program and Colleen Corbin in women's soccer.

The 2023-24 campaign was highlighted by a Super Regional berth for baseball, just the second time in program history that the Cats have won a regional and advanced to the supers, a Pop Tarts Bowl win for the football team and a women's basketball season that saw the Wildcats rise to as high as No. 3 in the national rankings before hosting the 2024 NCAA First and Second rounds in Manhattan. Jason Mansfield's first season leading the volleyball program included record crowds in the new Morgan Family Arena and numerous wins over Top 10 opponents.

That all came on the heels of Klieman's football team winning the 2022 Big 12 Championship and playing in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and Big 12 Coach of the Year Jerome Tang and his men's basketball squad making a remarkable run to the Elite Eight following a preseason poll that picked the Wildcats to finish last in the league. Both coaches were hired at K-State by Taylor, who was also named the 2022-23 Cushman & Wakefield FBS AD of the Year following a record year.

A former member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and current member of the LEAD1 Board of Directors, Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for six bowls and win the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments, the baseball team win the Fayetteville Regional and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and his staff have fundraised and implemented a department-wide facility master plan that benefits all Wildcat teams including the newly completed Indoor Track and Field Complex, the Morgan Family Arena for volleyball, Morris Family Olympic Training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility for football.

Taylor, who was named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium in 2020, has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented.

With the support of fans and donors, K-State Athletics has also continued to be financially self-sufficient and does not receive support from the university. In FY 2019, a year earlier than anticipated, the program ended the practice of receiving student privilege fees in support of the program. This move makes Taylor's program one of eight across the country to operate with no direct or indirect university and student funding or state support.

K-State Nation continues to support the athletics program in unprecedented fashion as overall pledges and cash gifts to the department during the 2024 fiscal year totaled $36.9 million, of which $26.1 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program. Included in the $26.1 million in annual giving was a department record $1.1 million raised during the Powercat Auction.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in year four led the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship. Taylor also hired Tang to lead the men's basketball program, Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats to just their second Super Regional in school history. Mansfield had a banner first year on the volleyball court as record crowds saw his squad knock off three Top 10 opponents at home. Burke, in his first season in 2023-24, catapulted the women's golf program up the national ranks and narrowly missed on qualifying as a team for the NCAA Tournament in year one.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida. He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell. He served 13 years as Athletics Director at North Dakota State before being named Deputy AD at Iowa in 2014.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

A LOOK BACK AT 2025
Last season, K-State registered its seventh consecutive winning season, posting a 32-26 overall record and a 17-13 mark in Big 12 play. The Wildcats earned their sixth NCAA Tournament appearance and second straight berth, marking the program's first back-to-back bids since 2010–11.

RECORDS FALL
The 17 conference wins set a new school record, surpassing the previous mark established by the 2013 team, while the season was highlighted by a school-record 97 home runs.

TOP PERFORMERS
Last season, the Wildcats finished within the Big 12's top five in several offensive categories, ranking third in home runs (97) and slugging percentage (.492), and fifth in total runs (424) and walks (272). K-State finished just outside of the top five in scoring (7.3 runs per game). The 2025 season was highlighted by strong offensive performances from graduate Keegan O'Connor, junior Maximus Martin and freshman AJ Evasco.

CATS DEALING
Last season, K-State's pitching staff finished seventh in the Big 12 in total strikeouts (507) and strikeouts per nine innings (9.2), ranking 49th nationally. Two players finished among the Big 12's top 10 in strikeouts per nine innings, with left-hander Jacob Frost at 10.18 (fifth) and right-hander Michael Quevedo at 9.90 (eighth).

YES, SHEFF
Lincoln Sheffield, who tossed a complete game to secure the Wildcats' series sweep over Utah on May 16, finished fifth in the Big 12 in both strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.68) and walks allowed per nine innings (2.30). With his 6 2/3 scoreless innings against Houston Christian on May 31, Sheffield set the record for most shutout innings by a starter in K-State's NCAA postseason history, helping the Wildcats advance to the NCAA Austin Regional semifinal.

BOMB KING
On May 31, Keegan O'Connor broke the program's single-season home run record with his 17th home run of the season – a three-run blast during the NCAA Austin Regional. Entering the regional tied at 16 homers with Scott Poepard, Heath Schesser and Dylan Phillips, O'Connor launched his 17th homer at 104 mph off the bat to eclipse the mark set in 1997.

ALL-AMERICAN
Launching his 17th homer at 104-mph off the bat to eclipse the mark originally set in 1997. Freshman AJ Evasco capped a historic rookie campaign by earning Second Team Freshman All-American honors from the NCBWA. He set multiple freshman program records with 11 home runs of the year and 52 RBIs.

MAXIMUM POWER
Junior Maximus Martin earned First Team All-Central Region honors, becoming the fifth player of the Hughes era to receive All-Region recognition and one of seven Big 12 selections on the First Team from a 37-school region. A Second Team All-Big 12 honoree, Martin collected Big 12 Player and Newcomer of the Week honors and led the team with 18 multi-hit games, while ranking second with 15 multi-RBI performances. On March 10, he became the first Wildcat to earn Golden Spikes Player of the Week recognition after posting a 2.714 OPS with five home runs and 12 RBI in a series sweep of William & Mary.

MLB DRAFT
K-State had two players taken in the 10th round of the 2025 MLB Draft,. Martin was selected in the 10th round by the Boston Red Sox with the 298th overall pick, followed by Frost, who was taken with the 315th pick by the Los Angeles Dodgers to close out the round. Martin becomes just the second Wildcat ever drafted by the Red Sox, joining Robert Youngdahl (2011), while Frost is the ninth player in program history selected by the Dodgers.

USA! USA!
Right-hander James Guyette earned an invitation to the 2025 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team Training Camp, becoming the third player under Hughes — and fourth overall in program history — to receive the honor.

ALL-BIG 12
Martin and O'Connor each earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors, while Evasco was selected to the All-Freshman Team. Additionally, Seth Dardar, Jacob Frost and James Guyette received honorable mention recognition in 2025.

STUDENT-athletes
Academically, the Wildcats earned the program's second-ever ABCA Team Academic Excellence Award — and first since the 2016–17 academic year — finishing with a team GPA of 3.24.

All-American shortstop Kaelen Culpepper became the second first-rounder in school history after he was selected 21st overall by the Minnesota Twins in the 2024 MLB Draft. In the regional opener, Culpepper became just the fourth player in K-State history to hit for the cycle and first since 2014. A total of five K-State players were chosen in the 2024 MLB Draft, including four taken in the first 10 rounds. In addition to Culpepper, the Cats draft picks included right-hander Tyson Neighbors (fourth-round, No. 118 overall), right-hander Jackson Wentworth (fifth-round), second baseman Brady Day (10th-round), and outfielder Brendan Jones (12th-round). The Wildcats' nine All-Big 12 selections matched the program record that was set in 2013.

RECORDS FALL, CATS EARN BACK-TO-BACK NCAA BERTHS [2025]
The Kansas State Wildcats posted their seventh straight winning season with a 32–26 overall record and a program-record 17 Big 12 wins. The team earned the programs sixth NCAA Tournament appearance and second consecutive berth—the program's first back-to-back bids since 2010–11—while setting a school record with 97 home runs. Keegan O'Connor broke the single-season home run record with his 17th blast during the NCAA Austin Regional, freshman AJ Evasco earned NCBWA Second Team Freshman All-American honors, and junior Maximus Martin collected First Team All-Central Region recognition along with multiple conference honors, becoming the first Wildcat to be named the Golden Spikes Player of the Week. K-State had two two players taken in the 10th round of the MLB Draft with Martin and LHP Jacob Frost. James Guyette was invited to USA Baseball's Collegiate National Team Training Camp. The 2025 squad capped the year by earning the ABCA Team Academic Excellence Award with a 3.24 team GPA.

ALL-CENTURY TEAM

In celebration of 100 years of K-State Baseball in 2000, the university named 21 former players to the All-Century Baseball Team as voted on by a select group of head coaches and letterwinners. The group included five Major League players, five that received recognition to 10 All-America teams and 15 players that earned first team, second team or honorable mention honors a total of 30 times in their careers at K-State. The honorees came from nearly every decade that Kansas State fielded a baseball team, including one from each the 1930s, 1940s and 1950s, six from the 1960s, four from the 1970s, four from the 1980s and four from the 1990s. The list is broken down by position with six pitchers, one catcher, seven infielders and seven outfielders.

STEVE ANSON [1973-76; MISHAWAKA, IND.]
Four-year starter as a first baseman and outfielder for the Wildcats from 1973-76... Named first team All-Big Eight Conference as an outfielder in 1974... Ranks among K-State's Top 10 in six career categories, including at-bats (579), triples (19) and total bases (325)... Owns the career mark for triples with 19 in his four-year career... Led the team in hits and batting average each of his four seasons as a Wildcat... Posted an impressive senior year in 1976, hitting a team-high .356 in 54 games with team-bests in runs (45), hits (62), 2B (11), 3B (six) and RBI (48).

ELDEN AUKER [1930-32; NORCATUR, KAN.]
One of the greatest athletes in Kansas State history... Played football, basketball and baseball at Kansas State in the late 1920s and early 1930s and was selected as an All-American in all three sports... Upon graduation, he had offers to play both professional football and baseball, but chose baseball where he embarked on a 10-year major league career... Played with three different teams in his major league career, including the Detroit Tigers (1933-38), Boston Red Sox (1939) and St. Louis Cardinals (1940-42)... ELDEN AUKER: THE FIRST WILDCAT ALL-AMERICAN

ELDEN AUKER (1910-2006)

Pitcher | 1933-42
Detroit Tigers
Boston Red Sox
St. Louis Browns

Taking it in stride. That expression pretty well describes Elden Auker's approach to life. He's had quite a life to handle, covering 87 years and enough significant achievements to fill many people's portfolios.

Auker played football, basketball and baseball at Kansas State in the late 1920s and early 1930s, and he was selected as an all-American in all three sports. After graduation, he had offers to play professional football and baseball. He chose baseball, and embarked on a 10-year major league career.

On his first visit to venerable Yankee Stadium in New York, the first batter he faced was none other than Babe Ruth, whom Auker struck out on four pitches. He also played with or against numerous other Hall of Famers in a career with the Detroit Tigers, Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns.

Even at age 88, Auker still was competitive, as can be attested by the fact that he played golf three times a week. In a sport in which it is every participant's goal to shoot his age, Auker has made a habit of it, recording the feat 20 times in a row at one point. And his exploits have earned fans of all ages and circles, including a former President of the United States, who came to Auker and asked if he remembered him.

It's just another day in the life of Elden Auker.

Auker grew up in Norcatur, in northwest Kansas, where he was coached in football by Pete Peterson, an alum of the University of Nebraska. "He said, 'They'll get you a job if you'll go to Nebraska. I think you ought to go there,'" Auker said. "But I played in a basketball tournament in Norton against Almena, and we beat them, 10-9. (Those were the days when defense was everything.) I scored nine of the 10 points in that game. The referee in that game was Charley Corsault, the basketball and baseball coach at Kansas State.

"After the game he talked with me about going to Kansas State. He gave me quite a talk on it. He said, 'I'll get you a job. But I think you owe it to Kansas; you're a Kansas boy. If you go to Nebraska, you're not being loyal to your home state.' I was young and I thought a lot of Kansas, so I decided that was where I should go."

Among the sports he played at K-State, he liked football the best. " I just liked the physical contact, I guess," he said. He played quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense. "I got as far away from the action as I could on defense, but I got plenty of contact back there on punts and passes."

Despite all the success Auker had, his most vivid memories of his K-State playing days were two losses. In 1931, the Cats were 5-0 and bound for a possible berth in the Rose Bowl, the only postseason bowl game in existence at that time. They had won their first five games by a total score of 94-14, including three straight shutouts against Kansas, Oklahoma and West Virginia. But late in the contest against West Virginia, an injury to Ralph Graham, one of the other stars on that team, left the Wildcats shorthanded.

The Cats lost their next two games, and Auker takes more than his share of the blame. "The third quarter of the Iowa State game was scoreless," he said. "I dropped back to punt (that was when the goal post was on the goal line) and I faked it. The end had been cutting in fast and almost blocked a couple of punts. So when he cut in, I faked a punt and ran 102 yards for a touchdown. That put us ahead 6-0. Henry Cronkite, who was doing the place kicking, missed the point after touchdown.

"In the fourth quarter I was playing safety. The guy got behind me and they threw a pass over my head for a touchdown. I tipped the ball, but the guy still caught it and fell over the goal line. They kicked the point and beat us 7-6. The Kansas City Star came out the next day and said, 'Auker hero and goat.' That's one I remember.

"The next game was against Nebraska. We had Nebraska beat, 3-0, with 27 seconds left to play. I punted a ball, trying to kick it out of bounds down the right-hand side of the field. Nebraska put in a little guy who caught it right on the sideline. The guys thought he was out of bounds, but he wasn't, and he ran 80 yards for a touchdown and they beat us, 6-3. Those two games I remember. I always remember those bad things. The good things are just kind of taken in stride, but those bad things, you never forget them."

Auker remembers a lot about his K-State days, even though they occurred more than 65 years ago. He recalls working his way through school cleaning a drug store for $1 a day. "In those days, they didn't pay you any money for signing," he said. "They gave athletes jobs. I got a job cleaning out the drug store every morning, sweeping it and mopping it. I did that for four years for $1 a day. And that got me through school. In those days, you could buy breakfast for 15 cents, dinner was about 35 cents. I worked in the harvest fields in the summertime and I pitched baseball and made a little money."

After graduation, he was offered a contract for $6,000 ($500 per game) by the Bears. "That was back in 1932 when times were tough," he said. "That was a lot of money."

In 1932, there was no Deion Sanders to follow and no agents to negotiate, and Auker was forced to make a choice. "I graduated on June 1 and went directly to Detroit," he recalled. "When I got there, I reported to Mr. Navin, who owned the Tigers. In our first conversation he said, 'I understand that you have an opportunity to play football this fall.' I said, 'Yes. I've been offered a contract with the Chicago Bears.'

"He said, 'We think you have the possibility of being a major-league pitcher, but before you come up here, we've got to send you to the minor leagues. We're going to have to invest money in training you and getting you ready for professional baseball."

Auker possessed a good fastball and a good curve. But a football injury to his shoulder prevented him from throwing overhand. His first manager in the minors, Bob Coleman, convinced him to try pitching underhand, instead of sidearmed. After practicing for awhile, Coleman told Auker he wanted to give him some game action so Auker was going to pitch nine innings, regardless of his performance. He pitched a shutout, winning 1-0, and never threw overhand again.

He made the majors the next year. His catcher that year with the Tigers, Ray Hayworth, still is living in North Carolina. Auker and Hayworth form the oldest living battery in baseball. Hayworth was behind the plate when Auker came to the mound in a relief role in Yankee Stadium to face Ruth. "Bucky Harris was our manager," Auker said. "He said to me, 'Elden, you go to the bullpen, and if I need you, I'll call you in.' We had a left-handed pitcher named Carl Fisher. He got into the third inning and got in trouble. So the phone rang, and they called me in from the bullpen. The hitter was Babe Ruth. I threw four pitches to him, and struck him out.

"I didn't think anything about it. All I was trying to do was get him out, and I went from there. I had to get him out before I could do anything else. I later played golf with him for a couple of years down in Florida. He was a good personal friend. He told me, 'I didn't like your style of pitching. It bothered me.'"

Auker also was friends with another Yankee Hall of Famer, Lou Gehrig. The two players often wrestled for fun in the common hallway between the two locker rooms at Fenway Park. Until one time when Auker caught Gehrig by surprise. "I grabbed him. Usually he just lifted you off the ground and you started just bearhugging," he said. "This time, he just folded up. He said, 'Don't do that.' I helped him get up and said, 'What's the matter with you?' He said, 'I've got something wrong with me. I don't have any strength. I can't hit the ball out of the infield. I don't know what's wrong with me.' He said he had begun to notice it the previous winter. He had a lousy spring and by the time they got to Boston, he wasn't doing well at all. He played a couple of innings that day and he took himself out. Then the next day, he played a couple more innings, and took himself out. They went to Detroit, and that's when he left the team and went to the Mayo Clinic. That was the last time I saw him."

The list of former teammates — Ted Williams, Hank Greenberg, Mickey Cochrane — is a list of some of the all-time greats of the game.

In 1935, he opened the World Series against the Chicago Cubs and was interviewed by a young reporter from WHO in Des Moines, Iowa, named Ronald Reagan. Twenty-five years later, Reagan, then the governor of California asked Auker if he remembered him. "I thought he had it turned around, but he remembered interviewing me," Auker said.

Auker's athletic exploits are limited to the golf course these days, though he plays like someone much younger. His history has earned him a place in several Halls of Fame, including K-State's and the state of Kansas.

"I was the first member to be elected into the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame," he said. "They hold a banquet whenever they have someone to go in, and Mrs. Auker and I always go. We have a great time. We don't see many old friends, because there are not many of them left, but we see some new friends that we've made."

Even the fact that he has outlived most of his contemporaries doesn't bother Auker. He just takes it all in stride.
